SOCIALITIES.

Father time is the correct standard for this latitude, at M. D. Kelly's.

Mr. J. S. Bryant, a prominent lawyer of Nashville, passed through the city Saturday.

Mr. G. W. Braden, of Louisville was the guest of Prof. A. F. Williams' family Sunday.

Mrs. M. E. Long is visiting relatives in Galveston, Tex., and will remain all the winter.

Mr. Urey Woodson, editor of the Owensboro Messenger, passed through the city Saturday.

Mr. R. M. Anderson is in Louisville attending the Grand Lodge of the order of Odd Fellows, as a representative.

Mrs. Emily Lindenburg, who has spent the summer at Mr. V. W. Crabb's, left yesterday for her home in Galveston, Texas.

Rev. J. N. Prestridge has returned from Clarksville where he has been engaged in a protracted meeting. The Democrat pays him the following compliment: "Mr. Prestridge is a young man of deep convictions, of undoubted talent and is an earnest and forcible speaker. His sermons display an investigation of his subjects, and a depth of thought which do him much credit."

Attention Company D. 3d Reg't K. S. G.

You are hereby ordered to meet in your armory on Tuesday evening Oct. 28th at 7:30 o'clock sharp for regular monthly drill, all members in arrears of fines and dues, will settle with the secretary and treasury at this meeting.

By order of
W. E. SMITH,
Capt. Com'ding.

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly.

There are three articles in the November number which render it one of the most interesting yet issued. "Money Panics," by Richard B. Kimball, LL. D., traces the history of panics from that of 1856 in London, to that of May, 1884, in New York, and Charles Gayarre relates the particulars of Washington's surrender at Fort Mifflin, in 1777—both articles are finely illustrated. The third feature is the commencement of a thrilling serial story by Mr. Garrett Walker, of New Orleans, entitled "The Death Mark." The author is both blind and paralyzed, and yet with beautiful cheerfulness and energy supports himself upon his writings, which he dictates to an amanuensis. There are, also, the usual variety of choice reading matter in the 128 quarto pages, and the embellishments number over 100. This is unquestionably the cheapest magazine in existence—the price is only 25 cents a number, or $2.50 a year postpaid. Mrs. Frank Leslie, publisher, 53, 55 and 57 Park Place, New York.

South Kentucky College Items.

The fabulous bird Phoenix when she arose from the ashes did not appear more grand and imposing than does South Kentucky College since it has been rebuilt. This is not only true of the building, but of the school. At the present writing there are one hundred and fifty students in daily attendance, and the number is likely to be increased.

A military company consisting of young men and boys has been organized under the command of Captain Fitts, a well trained military officer. The boys are clad in military gray suits, adorned with glistening brass buttons and to the beholder they present quite a martial appearance. The following young men were selected by Captain Fitts, as officers: Herman Cox, Logan Feland, Otho Anderson, Sergeants. Hanson Dulin, John Burnett and Gabe Campbell are the Corporals.

Owsley Stanley is Sergeant of the "extra drill brigade."

Prof. M. L. Lipscomb went to the Louisville Exposition Thursday, and returned home Saturday.

Messrs. Lucian Cayce, Hanson Dulin and Otho Anderson spent Saturday and Sunday in Earlington, playing havoc with fair maidens' hearts and having a merry time in general.

Messrs. Albert and Ellis Cox took in the sights at Louisville Thursday. I forgot to mention in the proper place that the uniforms were made for the boys by Thompson & Co. of this city, and give entire satisfaction.

The caps were purchased through the agency of Dabney & Bush from a firm in New York, and are adorned in front with the golden colored letters, "S. K. C."

The faculty held a called meeting one day last week. Your humble servant rejoiced in the fact that he was not honored with an invitation to attend.

That S. K. C. may continue to grow in prosperity, and that Cleveland may be the next President of the United States, is the desire of James Pye has gone East to attend the GREAT BANKRUPT CLOTHING SALES. Owing to the recent panic in this line of trade, several large manufacturing houses having failed for over one million dollars each, their goods are thrown on the market and offered at a great sacrifice. Mr. Pye having received telegrams from his friends in Cincinnati, Philadelphia and New York to come on at once, has complied. It is his purpose to purchase largely, and all his friends and customers may look out for bargains, such as were never before offered in this city.

MARRIED.

GOLLADAY—TURNLEY.—At the Christian church, Roaring Springs, Ky., on Tuesday, October 21st, 1884, Miss Willie L. Golladay, of Roaring Springs, Ky., to Mr. Ed. P. Turnley, of Lake Weir, Fla., Rev. William Stanley officiating.

A large number of the friends and relatives of the contracting parties were in attendance to see the ceremony performed and to offer their congratulations. The church was beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers, and a large marriage bell hung suspended from the ceiling, under which the happy couple stood. The ceremony was beautiful, eloquent, touching, and appropriate.—Cadiz Telephone.

The bride is a most estimable and captivating young lady and has many friends in this city. The groom was until the last year or two a resident of Clarksville, Tenn. The happy couple have our very best wishes for future happiness.

COUNTY EDUCATORS.

List of Teachers of the Districts of Christian County, with Post-Office Address of each.

The Teacher's Institute of Christian County has been called by Commissioner Champlin to meet at the Court house Thursday and Friday Oct. 30 and 31. Apropos to the meeting we present a list of the white teachers of the county. The list is nearly complete and only lacks a few whose names have not yet been reported to the Superintendent. There are 84 districts and nearly all have schools being taught. In two of them three months schools have already been taught and the same teachers are now teaching in other districts.

There are 45 colored districts and only one is without a teacher. An Institute for the colored teachers will be held shortly and we will give a list of the teachers.

CYRUS M. BROWN, S. C. C.

The Evansville Excursion.

A Cleveland and Hendricks club was organized at the Court house Friday night. The meeting was gotten up hastily, but about 60 names were enrolled. On Saturday the club largely increased its membership and headed by the Hopkinsville Cornet Band attended the Hendricks demonstration at Evansville. Over 100 tickets were sold at this place and delegations were picked up at Crofton and other stations and the number from this county was probably 150. By the time the train reached Evansville ten coaches were filled and there were two bands aboard. The excursionists returned Sunday and pronounce the affair the grandest demonstration ever witnessed in Southern Indiana. Ex-Govs. Hendricks and Gray were the principal speakers, but only a small portion of the crowd could get near enough to hear the speeches. The price of round trip tickets from this city was $2.00.

SPECIAL LOCALS.

To The Tax-Payers of Christian County.

My term as Sheriff of Christian County ends with this year. I must and will close out my business. Many of you are owing me taxes. These must be paid right away. This means everybody. Do not say, "It does not mean me, I am good for my taxes." No man is as good as his money. I have employed a number of deputies, and on the 1st Monday in November, I shall start them out with orders to levy and sell and wind up this unholy business. I shall advertise all land and town lots for sale on the 1st Monday in December. Come in and pay and save costs. I mean what I say. I must wind out. I have neither home nor money, and cannot lay around this town for long years waiting to collect little amounts of tax. I give you fair warning. From rich and poor I must have this money.
